Reaching Goals

Shala Padilla is a licensed clinical social worker who celebrates 10 years at RCYS this year. She recently shared an inspiring story about a client who triumphed after suffering with severe anxiety and trauma. Hesitant to receive help, but needing help to move forward, the client began meeting with Shala.

"We began by establishing rapport and building a safe therapeutic relationship. One goal was to become comfortable attending college away from home. We met weekly; establishing healthy coping strategies*. Overtime, this young person became more independent; showing less anxiety & trauma symptoms. This client is about to begin their second year at college."*

Meet Michael Leipzig

This past July, Michael was named President of Rogers County Youth Services' Board of Directors and recently shared why he is passionate about the work at Youth Services.

Leipzig is co-owner of Cutting Edge Technologies, a manufacturing & engineering firm. He also serves as a board member of the Tulsa Area Manufacturers Association.

"I'VE ALWAYS BELIEVED CHILDREN ARE IMPORTANT... THEY ARE THE FUTURE."

Michael is a proud dad and appreciates the stable environment he grew up in. His says that his faith in God and heart for children are what led him to serve at RCYS. "I've always believed children are important, but they became a priority for me when I joined the board at RCYS. They are the future."

Michael attributes his serving on the board to his faith. "Jesus was a servant and we're supposed to be like Him. For me, being a part of RCYS is important because it's a part of that process–being a servant."
